Activities

Volunteer Clean-up Today! 8:00 a.m. to Noon:

Join REI volunteers at the North Mountain Visitor Center for a celebration of places we love to recreate in! Help with a clean up around the NMV Center, parking lots and popular trails. We also have paint to re-paint the red fire lanes in the parking lot, so wear old clothing! Be sure to wear sturdy shoes, bring work gloves, wear protective clothing and a hat. Bring your own water and snacks although the NM Visitor Center will have water and snacks available to purchase.

Short Family Fun Hike: 9:00 a.m.

Led by volunteer Angelika Ahlbrandt. Fun hike on North Mountain's desert reaches. One mile, easy.

Hiking For Kids: 9:00 a.m. Led by Environmental Educator Katy Schultz, this is a moderate "kid-sized" hike and exploration starting at the NMVC and coming full circle back to the Center. Katy has been involved with Environmental Education for over twelve years and has two kids of her own. Reservations are suggested.
